

Health Economics Seminar series Program 2024 - 1st semester

Thursday February 22nd at 15.30, at Unisanté (Vennes)

- Dr. Nicolas Schreiner, CSS institute
- “A Prescription for Knowledge: Patient Information and Generic Substitution” Flyer

Monday April 22nd at 10.30, at Unisanté (Vennes)

- Prof. James Murphy, University of Memphis
- “Enhancing the Efficacy of Brief Interventions for Alcohol and Drugs among Higher-Risk Young Adults using Behavioral Economics Models” Flyer

Monday May 13th at 11.00, at Unisanté (Vennes)

- PD Dr. Christian Schmid, CSS Institute
- “Forward-looking behavior in health insurance” Flyer Presentation

Thursday May 21st at 10.45, at Unisanté (Vennes)

- Dr. Philipp Trein, University of Lausanne
- “How does regulating doctors’ admissions affect health expenditures ? Evidence from Switzerland” Flyer

Wednesday June 19th at 11.00, on HEC Campus (UNIL-Chamberonne)

- Prof. Günther Fink, University of Basel
- “Child growth, parental knowledge and supplementation – Evidence from Zambia” Flyer

Thursday June 27th at 10.45, at Unisanté (Vennes)

- Dr. Lan Zou, Harvard Medical School
- “The impact of subsidies on deductible choice in health insurance” Flyer Presentation

Thursday July 11th at 11.00, at Unisanté (Vennes)

- Prof. Daniel Eisenberg, Fielding School of Public Health, University of California
- “Investing in Children's Mental Health” Flyer

Fall 2024, on HEC campus and at Unisanté (Vennes), more details to come